December 6, 2009 (FPRC) -- Game developer Gallen Technologies, LLC announced the pending release of its long awaited iPhone game SPHERE RAIDER TM. It will soon be available for the iPhone and iTouch through Apple's App store. SPHERE RAIDER TM brings exhilarating game play for all ages. The game can be played by young and old, and provides hours of fun and entertainment.

As an integral part of its product development Gallen Technologies, LLC is committed to bringing entertaining and non violent gaming applications as a part of its product line. SPHERE RAIDER TM (Patent Pending) has extraordinary graphic designs and brilliant gaming applications. SPHERE RAIDER TM has been in development for seven months.

SPHERE RAIDER TM was designed as an entertaining game of skill to challenge the eye and hand coordination of the player. It contains multiple challenge levels that require increasing skill and concentration. At each level the player is challenged to compete and match skills against the game programming. Each game level has its own graphics and design and presents a more difficult challenge to the player's skill.

Gallen Technologies, LLC is committed to bringing highest quality software design to the iPhone and iTouch. Gallen Technologies, LLC is a privately held company located in West Orange, New Jersey.

SPHERE RAIDER TM anticipated release date through Apple's App store is December 11, 2009.
