December 7, 2009 (FPRC) --NEW YORK, NY- Coolil.com, a Web site dedicated to bringing unique Israeli-designed products to consumers worldwide, is proud to introduce the Hagar Satat line of Fashion leather bracelets and Necklaces.

The Hagar Satat line of hand-made fashion jewelry designs is based on a combination of leather and silver-plated or 24-Karat gold-plated metals. Hagar's work expresses a continuous search after the most interesting combinations of these materials: soft leathers with various textures or colors, variety of metals plated Silver and gold, which complement and complete each other to create elegant jewelries.

The use of such diverse materials allows Hagar to create fascinating and unique designs that redefine the concept 'jewel': Not only can it serve its classic and conventional role as a fashion accessory that completes a look, her fashion jewelry can become an inspiration, shaping and setting the tone for the entire outfit.

Hagar Satat features some great fashion necklaces and bracelets; The braided hoop leather bracelets, a bangles bracelet made of multiple braided leather hoops with 24K gold plated metal links, the paisley cuff leather bracelet, a trendy bracelet made of multiple braided leather hoops with 24K gold plated metal links to create a unique fashion Jewelry and the Leather Snake links Necklace, a stylish long necklace made of leather hoops and silver plated links, creating a superb stylish look.

Hagar graduated from the jewelry & fashion department at Bezalel Academy, Jerusalem and founded the Hagar Satat in 2004. Hagar presents her designs at her studio and shops in Tel Aviv. Her designs are sold in selected shops all over Israel as well as in the US, Canada, Europe and Japan and now her trendy fashion jewelry line is available on Coolil.com.
