

LiquidWholeFood.com Joins Life Force International's Stimulus Package of 50% Off Liquid Vitamins

Liquid vitamins retailer LiquidWholeFood.com has announced they will feature Life Force International's groundbreaking promotion of half-off one Life Force item per month running now through April 2010.

December 24, 2009 (FPRC) -- Economic recovery can't come fast enough for many families, and as of yet there aren't any stimulus packages for people being proactive with their health with organic vitamins and supplements. All of that is about to change thanks to Life Force International member LiquidWholeFood.com. Effective immediately, the website is offering one Life Force International product at a 50% discount and will continue to change that product each month through April 30, 2010.

'Once again, Life Force International proves they are eager to serve and not be served,' Carolyn Schlicher stated. Schlicher co-owns the LiquidWholeFood.com website with her husband, Darryl. She continued, 'They're spearheading such an innovative idea: discount particular liquid supplements for 30-days so that the people who are really hurting won't have to sacrifice staying healthy. Now more than ever, people need to stay healthy if they are without insurance or if the bills are piling up and these products can do just that.'

LiquidWholeFood.com exclusively sells both organic and natural liquid vitamins, liquid supplements, liquid herbal homeopathy tinctures, and other liquid health-related products manufactured by Life Force International in Poway, CA. The site's name comes from Life Force International's proprietary Body Balance, an organic liquid whole food supplement made from 100% certified organic aloe vera and nine types of seaweed.

The first product to be offered at the 50% discount is the gluten-free, vegetarian, vegan, and diabetic-safe Colon Cleanse Kit. The system is designed as a detoxifying and weight loss agent and contains Intestinal Tone Psyllium Husk and Seeds bulk provider, Activated Charcoal detoxifier, and the Herbal Tabs stool softener made with sea vegetation and premium herbs. Mrs. Schlicher pointed out that never in Life Force's 25-year history had they ever offered this product at this price, and that this discount ends in one week at 7:00 PM Eastern time. When asked what the next product to be offered at 50%-off will be, Schlicher stated that even she didn't know. 'All I can tell you is that we are completely committed to passing this savings onto our customers as soon as we hear and are excited that the discount will be cycling through different products.'
