

Experience Rome Like in the Movies: New Italian Tour Offered from Romaround

Romaround, the leading tour operator in Rome, Italy, just started offering a new tour for cinema lovers. Participants will visit the locations where world famous film like La Dolce Vita and Gladiator have been shot and learn the history and the secrets behind.

January 20, 2010 (FPRC) -- From Federico Fellini's La Dolce Vita to Ron Howard's Angels and Demons, Rome has been the set of hundreds of world famous movies. Now a special tour designed by Romaround is offering the possibility to re-live the emotions of the big screen on-site.

A three hour walking tour through the center of Rome will help visitors to discover the locations and the secrets behind the making of movies set in Rome. The featured films range from old time classics like Roman Holiday, Three Coins in the Fountain, Bicycle Thieves to modern releases like Angels and Demons, The Belly of an Architect, The Talented Mr. Ripley.

Anecdotes and secrets of celebrities who played in these movies will be revealed, including Kate Blanchett, Matt Damon, Tom Hanks, Audrey Hepburn, Sophia Loren, Jude Law, Marcello Mastroianni, Gregory Peck.

"We are very excited for this new offering" said Sandra Errichetti, the founder of Romaround, "this is a journey through the history of cinema, it is an unforgettable experience for the visitor of Rome seeing the art treasures of from a new perspective"

The tour includes the most important touristic attractions of Rome, Trevi Fountain, Navona square, the Pantheon, the Spanish Steps.

Another movie themed tour to be launched in February will focus on ancient Rome. This tour will include also the Colosseum and the Circus Maximus, so visitors will see where Russel Crowe was fighting in the Gladiator and where Charlton Heston was running the chariots in Ben Hur.

Romaround is a tour operator specializing in high quality private visits to Rome, Florence and Venice. They are present in various Italian cities and have been recently acquired by Blue Travel LLC, Boston MA.

Contact Information

For more information contact Andrea Barsotti of Romaround (<http://www.romaround.it>)
+393482360293

Keywords

tour
rome
trevi

You can read this press release online here