

Student Travel Agency, Fantastic Tours & Travel, Announces New Email Newsletter

Fantastic Tours & Travel, a company that has been providing student travel services for the past 25 years, announces it is releasing a new email newsletter. The newsletter will help readers get the best deals on student travel.

February 18, 2010 (FPRC) -- COMMACK, NY - Fantastic Tours & Travel, a leading source of great deals on student travel, announces it is releasing a new email newsletter. The newsletter will provide readers with special money saving travel tips.

In addition, the newsletter offers insightful information on the newest and most popular exhibits and attractions at student travel destinations as well as other helpful information.

"It's our goal that our new newsletter will help students and educators get the most out of their trips and our services. We've been enhancing the education of American students since 1984 and we take great pride in our fully customized tours. Whether you're looking for an educational, one day trip to Washington DC or a three day tour to New York City, our new newsletter is a great place to look for ideas," said Kathy Fal, president of Fantastic Tours & Travel.

Fantastic Tours & Travel has been providing students and teachers with amazing educational experiences in some of the United States most historical cities. Popular tour destinations include Washington DC, Boston, Philadelphia, New York and more. Students can take in some of the country's most famous historical landmarks, including the White House, the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island, the Liberty Bell and more.

Educators are able to completely customize each tour, depending on the budget available for each portion. To make the trips even more affordable for educational groups, Fantastic Tours & Travel has a 'chaperones travel free' policy. One adult chaperone travels free with any 10 paid student travelers. Of course, tour groups aren't limited to the 10:1 ratio and groups can choose to add more chaperones if needed.

"We know today's economic climate means we need to find our customers discount student travel. We want to make sure students all over can take advantage of these once in a lifetime education opportunities and do all the legwork necessary to plan a great trip. Whether you're planning a trip for your class, a group of boy scouts or girl scouts or a sports team, give us a call and see what we can do for you - the only limit is your imagination," said Fal.

In addition to education and recreational student travel, Fantastic Tours & Travel provides customers with retiree travel and cruises, group travel, corporate travel and other standard travel services.
