February 25, 2010 (FPRC) -- Lauren Klein Jewelry, a leading online retailer of women's jewelry, monogrammed jewelry and diamond necklaces, today announced the arrival of new women's jewelry pieces that complement Spring 2010 clothing styles. The new jewelry arrivals include pieces made of gold, white gold, diamonds and a variety of fashion jewelry from well-known designers.

"Spring fashions are awash in soft, feminine colors contrasted with bold lines this year, and we're pleased to announce that our newest arrivals work beautifully on both ends of the style spectrum," said Sarah Leight, manager, Lauren Klein. "Located in the fashion capital of the U.S., our buyers scour the globe to find and stock the latest and hottest jewelry trends, which we offer at amazing prices, without compromising on quality and service."

The Fleur de Lis, also known as the "Lily of France," is a sign with a multitude of meanings, signifying perfection, light, and life. Fleur de Lis necklaces are available in white gold with diamonds and also in rose and yellow gold. Matching Fleur de Lis earrings and Fleur de Lis yellow gold disc pendants round out this Gallic inspired collection.
