

Internet Marketing Powerhouse Carbon Copy Pro Hosts a Live Training Event

Carbon Copy Pro, an internet marketing education company will host a training seminar in Boca Raton Florida on March 31, 2010. This seminar will include some of the most sought after, cutting edge marketing information available.

March 17, 2010 (FPRC) -- On March 31, 2010 many of the worlds top internet marketers will gather in Boca Raton, Fl. The lovely Boca Raton resort (a Waldorf Astoria Resort) will be the setting for a live training event for Carbon Copy Pro, an internet marketing education company. These live events only happen a few times each year so for those who attend this will be a very special event.

These extraordinary live events are significant in the Carbon Copy Pro community for many reasons. One reason is the high caliber, specialized training that is provided. People pay thousands of dollars to attend seminars with just one of the speakers/trainers who characterize these events. Attendees will soak up all of this wisdom for one ridiculously low price. According to some of the members, overdelivering and undercharging are typical characteristics within Carbon Copy Pro.

Another reason for the intense excitement among these people is the sense of reunion with their teammates whom they only actually get to see in person a few times a year. One CCPro member said 'It's like a huge family reunion, only without your really weird uncle.'

Of course people always get excited about events like this. But is it just a lot of hype? Is it designed to get the members all jacked up so they leave with renewed vigor and go out and 'conquer the internet'? I'm told no, it is an 8 hour training seminar with an award ceremony and yes, some of the team spirit type of stuff. But a healthy enthusiasm for what one is engaged in is good.

By the way at the award ceremony they don't just give away plaques. They will be giving away a luxury Caribbean cruise, 4 big screen TVs and a Macbook Pro.

This is a semi-private event. Only members of Carbon Copy Pro or people who are considering becoming members may purchase tickets for $149. If you are considering becoming a member and want to attend this event you must already be associated with a Carbon Copy Pro member. In other words, you need to contact a member and get invited. The ticket is good for two people and includes lunch and coffee breaks.

To get an invitation to this event go to www.TheTop3Percent.net?t=invitation

Contact Information

For more information contact Terrie Taylor of <http://www.thetop3percent.net>
(<http://www.thetop3percent.net>)

Keywords

carboncopypro

internetmarketing

generateincomeonline

You can read this press release online here