May 27, 2010 (FPRC) -- PHILADELPHIA, PA - The Money Machine Store has unveiled its new Circular Deluxe Money Machine -- a unique event and tradeshow marketing product designed to draw crowds and captivate audiences.

As participants grab at swirling cash inside the booth, the rounded design of the new Circular Deluxe Money Machine allows onlookers to cheer on the action from multiple angles.

"Nothing draws in a crowd like someone scrambling for free money -- and with the new Circular Deluxe Money Machine, more onlookers can see the action inside," said Jon Edelman, CEO Ideas4Events, the parent company of the Money Machine Store.

The new money blowing machine is equipped with an LED moving message board that can be easily customized to display a personal announcement tailored to each individual promotion. Made of a laser-cut steel and Lexan, the Circular Deluxe Money Machine is designed to be rugged, yet is light enough to be set up and moved by one person.

"The circular design is ideal for small spaces, yet with its lights, LED display, and the swirling money, it can capture attention from across even the most crowded trade show floor," said Edelman.
