

Home Hunters Celebrating 30 Years Of Helping People Find Apartments And Homes in New Jersey

This year marks the 30th anniversary of Home Hunters Realty; a company that helps people find homes and apartments in New Jersey. The company charges a fraction of what other real estate agencies charge to find New Jersey rentals.

June 7, 2010 (FPRC) -- FAIR LAWN, NJ -- Home Hunters, a licensed family-owned real estate agency, is celebrating its 30th anniversary in business. For the past 30 years the company has assisted over 75,000 people in finding homes and apartments in New Jersey. The company's service eases the strain of searching for homes in the North Jersey area and charges its customers only a small fee, a fraction of what other real estate agencies charge.

During its 30 years of experience, the agency has also worked with over 100,000 landlords in Northern New Jersey. Because of the long relationships Home Hunters has built with these landlords, many of them list their New Jersey rentals exclusively with the agency. Currently Home Hunters offers its customers a database of more than 2000 active listings.

Home Hunters is able to provide their service for less than what most other real estate agencies charge because Home Hunters has clients meet directly with the landlords, effectively cutting out the middle man. Once the client has registered they begin receiving new listings of apartments and homes that are available based upon the search criteria they have selected. The service, which costs only $195, is available for up to 4 months and can be extended if the client finds that they will need additional time to find a home.

"Our 30 years in business has demonstrated that a company that charges a fair value for quality services will be successful. Half of our customers come from referrals or repeat business, which reflects on the quality and effectiveness of Home Hunters," said Mark Brownlee, broker and owner of Home Hunters.

Landlords choose to work with Home Hunters because they can list homes, condos and apartments in New Jersey for free on the site. Apartment seekers choose Home Hunters to have access to thousands of listings exclusive to the agency. The mutually beneficial relationship for both landlords and apartment hunters is what's kept the family-owned agency successful for the past three decades.

About Home Hunters:

Home Hunters, a licensed real estate agency, has been serving the needs of clients in search of apartments and homes in New Jersey for 30 years. Many landlords in the area work exclusively with the company because of their long history and the success they have found listing with Home Hunters. New rentals in New Jersey are constantly being added to the over 2000 locations currently active in their database.
