

EntrepreneurialMoms.com Invites Media And Public To Attend Mommy Fair 2010 Showcasing Mom-Run Businesses

The free 2010 Mommy Fair event offers attendees a chance to shop among dozens of local mom-run businesses that will be showcasing their products and services.

June 8, 2010 (FPRC) -- CALGARY, AB -- The 2010 Mommy Fair hosted by Entrepreneurial Moms International is just around the corner. The event showcasing local entrepreneurial moms will be held Saturday, June 12th from 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM at Valleyview Presbyterian Church in Calgary. Local mom-run businesses will provide information on the various products and services offered.

The women business owners' event will have food, wine tasting and other beverages for the whole family. Admission is free and childcare will be available from 12:00 PM - 1:30 PM.

"Our members are excited to showcase their products and services to the public. Buying from mom-run businesses encourages the entrepreneurial spirit of mothers that are business minded while at the same time allowing them to provide the nurturing support their children need. Our event offers fun for the whole family so that both kids and parents will enjoy every minute," said Christie Schultz, Founder and CEO of Entrepreneurial Moms International.

Kids will also be able to take part in free trial classes for dance and karate. The dance free trial class will take place from 12:15 - 12:35 PM, and the karate class will go on from 12:40 - 1:00 PM. Valleyview Presbyterian Church is located at 7655 26th Ave SW in Calgary, AB which is just across the street from the new Springbank Hill playground.

Attendees are encouraged to stick around after the Mommy Fair for a BBQ and Playground Grand Opening presented by the community of Springbank Hill being held from 2:00 - 5:00 PM. The event will have bouncy castles, hamburgers and hotdogs and games. Attendees are encouraged to bring a side dish to share. For more information visit www.springbankhill.org.
