

Skyline New Jersey Trade Show Displays Win Three Jersey Advertising Awards

Skyline New Jersey wins several trophies at the New Jersey Advertising Club's 42nd Annual Jersey Awards.

June 21, 2010 (FPRC) -- PINE BROOK, NJ -- Three awards, one first place and two-second place trophies, were presented to Skyline New Jersey trade show display manufacturer of Pine Brook at the New Jersey Advertising Club's 42nd Annual Jersey Awards exhibition and dinner on June 2 at The Chart House in Weehawken, NJ. Against the backdrop of the New York City skyline, over 250 attendees were on hand as Fox 5 News/My9 News co-anchor Harry Martin and emcee Herb Barry distributed 275 awards to agencies, corporations and non-profit groups.

Skyline's winning entries included a first place award in the Small Exhibit Booth Display category for a 10 x 10 inline display for Gainesville, FL-based SiVance, a supplier to global manufacturing industries requiring specialty silicon technologies to modify silicone polymers. Second place in the category was awarded Skyline's 10 x 10 display for Triangle Manufacturing Company, Saddle River, a producer for surgical implants and medical instruments, including hip, knee and orthopedic implants.

In the Large Exhibit Booth Display category, Skyline took second place for a 30x40 island booth for Terumo Transfusion Products, Somerville, a manufacturer of medical devices for endovascular procedures.

"As a provider of trade show exhibits in New Jersey, it's gratifying that the awards support the faith placed on us by our clients in developing and producing trade show displays for them," said Scott Price, Skyline New Jersey president (<http://www.skylinenj.com>). "It underscores our ability of our group to serve the display booth needs for a wide variety of businesses."
