

Brian Hoffman Celebrates Red Skelton's Birthday

Sunday July 18th marks the 97th birthday of Red Skelton, one of America's favorite clowns. Join in the fun and festivities of this special celebration being held in the Royal Resort at 9pm Saturday July 17th.

July 10, 2010 (FPRC) -- Red Skelton born the son of a former circus clown and a cleaning woman, was introduced to showbiz at the age of seven by Ed Wynn, at a vaudeville show in Vincennes. At 10, he left home to travel with a medicine show through the Midwest, and joined the vaudeville circuit at age of 15.

He was the star of "The Red Skelton Show" on NBC Radio from 1941 to 1949 and CBS Radio from 1949 to 1953. He went on to star in his own television show, the Red Skelton Show which aired from 1951 to 1971. He created such characters as Clem Kadiddlehopper, Gertrude and Healthcliffe, Sheriff Dead-eye, Willie Lump Lump, Freddie the Freeloader, the hobo who lived in the city dump and more.

Brian Hoffman's Remembering Red – A Tribute to Red Skelton will be doing a special birthday celebration show on Saturday July 17th.

Reminisce with Brian as he re-creates some of those loveable characters. This is a fun filled event for the entire family.
