

The Bridge Source Goes Worldwide!

From our warehouse in New Mexico, The Bridge Source is ready to ship globally to Bridge players in nearly every country.

July 15, 2010 (FPRC) -- We recognize it is difficult for international customers to find an ecommerce site willing to ship overseas, so we are announcing The Bridge Source is ready to start shipping worldwide to over 100 countries.

Now an American customer can send the perfect Bridge related gift to a friend or relative that enjoys playing Bridge in Europe, Asia, or just about any other region of the world.

We proudly ship via Priority Mail International which will get your order there in two weeks or less at a reasonable price. Our international customers will appreciate just how easy it to order from state-of-the-art Checkout system.

We encourage all Bridge players to stop by our site and start playing with the Bridge products you always wanted but could not find. The Bridge Source features the highest quality Bridge cards, tallies, score pads. We will gladly ship 100% plastic playing cards from the top manufacturers such as: KEM, Gemaco, Copag, DESJGN, Modiano and many more to anywhere in the world quicker and easier than any other source available to an online shopper.

All orders receive personal attention from one of our dedicated customer service professionals. Your order will typically ship out of our facility within 24 hours and will be on its way to fast!

A special note to the family and friends of our proud military personnel serving overseas. We will ship to any APO address at the lowest possible domestic shipping rate. We proudly have adopted several soldiers serving in Afghanistan so we realize how important it is to get packages to them in a timely manner.
