

Randy Jacobs Joins Disability Law Firm, Markhoff & Mittman

Brian Mittman, Managing Partner of Markhoff & Mittman and author of 5 Deadly Sins That Can Derail Your Workers' Compensation Case, is pleased to welcome disability attorney Randy Jacobs to his team. Jacobs will practice workers' compensation and disability law, primarily in Westchester County, NY.

July 15, 2010 (FPRC) -- White Plains, NY. White Plains Workers' Comp attorney, Brian M. Mittman, is pleased to announce the addition of Randy Jacobs to Markhoff & Mittman, P.C. Jacobs began practicing law in 2004 after graduating from Pace University School of Law. Over the past six years he has gained an expertise in both Workers' Compensation and Social Security Disability law and has litigated difficult cases on behalf of hundreds of claimants. In his new position, Jacobs will focus on workers' compensation in Westchester County.

'Having the right workers' compensation lawyer for my clients is essential,' says Brian Mittman, author of 5 Deadly Sins That Can Derail Your New York Workers' Compensation Case – Avoid Them And You May Have a Shot at Receiving Benefits!. 'I believe Randy Jacobs is such an attorney and I am glad to welcome him to our workers' compensation team.'

On a personal note, Randy currently lives in Orange County, NY where he grew up, went to high school, and met his wife who he married in 2008. They live in a rural area of the county where they spend much of their free time outdoors fishing, hiking and camping. He and his wife also enjoy traveling and they have been to various destinations including Antigua, the Grand Canyon and New Orleans. Randy is also a fan of horror movies and a history buff.

About Markhoff & Mittman

Markhoff & Mittman was founded in 1933 on the idea that people who are injured on the job should be treated with respect. Our firm has been on the forefront of New York workers disability for almost seventy-five years. Today we are as committed as ever to helping people who have been injured in the workplace recover the compensation that will allow them to move on with their lives. We are dedicated to helping people secure compensation for social security disability, supplemental security income, workers' compensation claims, New York City and State retirement disability and serious personal injury cases.
