One of the best Florida Hostels, Casa Yallaha, is holding Thank You Days in celebration of their 1st Anniversary. Summer vacationers are invited to Stay for 2 or more days and get an additional day free.

July 19, 2010 (FPRC) -- ST. AUGUSTINE, FL -- Travelers from around the United States and the world are invited to check out one of the premier Florida hostels. Casa Yallaha is celebrating their 1st year as a vibrant, exciting and affordable place to stay in St. Augustine.

In celebration of their 1st anniversary, the St. Augustine Hostel has opened their schedule to allow travelers to add an extra free day to their vacation as part of their Thank You Days Celebration.

Tim Smith, of Casa Yallaha, said, "Our Stay with Friends philosophy has helped hundreds of travelers enjoy a home away from home while travelling. Many who have come to stay at Casa Yallaha have found the convenient location of just a few blocks from downtown, along with the free on-site parking, and a quiet place to sleep after a fun day, a wonderful aspect of staying at Casa Yallaha."

St. Augustine Florida is renowned as one of the best destinations in the country for vacationers. Casa Yallaha has earned the reputation of being one the best St. Augustine lodgings because of the many amenities they offer to guests, and their location within St. Augustine's Historic District.

Relax on the front porch swing or among the flowers on the back deck. Then come in and play a game of pool, watch a movie or play board games with the kids. Save even more money by cooking meals in the double, guest kitchen.

Casa Yallaha was built in 1880 and features wood floors, high ceilings and big windows. Guests can enjoy the history of the building in cool comfort and safety. Renovations over the years include central air and heat and a state-of-the-art security and fire system. Plus, they are fully licensed by the State of Florida.

Contact Casa Yallaha today to schedule your visit to America's Oldest City and stay an extra day free.
