

Aging Outside the Box® Syndicated Radio Show & Lou Macaluso with Clown Town

Celebrity Radio Talk Show Host Shirley W. Mitchell interviews Lou Macaluso, Author of Clown Town as they discuss a utopian world of fantasy for young boys growing up in a Chicago suburb during the 1950s. The Prologue establishes the adult first-person narrator in the present tense. His journey backward leads the reader to the death of a neighborhood man, the death of Pudgie's grandfather, and the death of a schoolmate in a historic Chicago school fire of 1958. Pudgie also struggles with a volatile temper when teased about his crossed left eye. The temper threatens his existence in a "normal" school. Along the way, the narrative treats the reader to a nostalgic look at the 1950's.

BOOK: Clown Town - ISBN# 159858670X - by Lou Macaluso with Dog Ear Publishing, LLC - $14.00... "Clown Town" is true story/social Chicago history of a baby boomer's struggle with death phobia filtered through a child's perspective. The title refers to an imaginary world created by the young protagonist, Pudge, to pacify his younger friend's curiosity about the real world of school. Pudge's real world, however, is a horrific world of indignity, humiliation, anger, and fear. Clown Town is a utopian world of fantasy for young boys growing up in a Chicago suburb during the 1950s. Along the way, the narrative treats the reader to a nostalgic look at the 1950s (the music, the cars, the TV shows, the movies).
