

DirectRooms.com – Become a Part of History at Vienna Recordia on 26 September 2010

Once again the Vienna Prater, the oldest amusement park in the world, will host Vienna Recordia on the 26th September 2010.

August 9, 2010 (FPRC) -- This exciting international event brings together visitors from all over Europe and abroad in an attempt to break into the Guinness Book of World Records through a series of fun-loving, entertaining challenges.

Some highlights from Vienna Recordia 2009 included a visit from the World's Tallest Man, the preparation of the World's Longest Wiener Schnitzel, a demonstration by the World's Strongest Man, and Guinness World Records for Most Coconuts Crushed by Hand, Most People Solving a Crossword, and Most People Crammed into a Smart Car.

This year's Vienna Recordia promises great fun and enjoyment for participants as well as spectators.

There will be plenty of attractions scattered throughout the park, and access to the event is free. Participants not only have the chance to earn a place in the record books, but can also win some fantastic prizes.

Those who wish to participate in a record-setting event must reserve a ticket either at the park on the day of the event or ahead of time by submitting their name to contact@zoom.co.at.

"Vienna Recordia is a one-of-a-kind event," said Lek Boonlert, head of marketing for DirectRooms.com. "This is a great way to spend a day in Vienna, whether you hope to be part of a record-breaking effort or simply want to enjoy the sights of Vienna Prater."

Booking advance reservations at any of the available Vienna hotels will ensure a quality room at a great rate.
