At the 2010 North Carolina Eckankar Regional Seminar, Canadian Barbara Morningstar’s talk on Saturday will be entitled: "There is No Death."

August 14, 2010 (FPRC) -- Barbara Morningstar from Vancouver, British Columbia will be speaking on Saturday morning, August 28th at the 2010 ECKANKAR Regional Seminar in Asheville, North Carolina. The seminar is being held at the Crowne Plaza Resort Aug. 27-29th. The theme is Spiritual Tools for Mastering Life’s Challenges.

Barbara is a long time member of Eckankar and speaks at major seminars and conferences. Her charm and wisdom are as engaging as the amazing stories she tells, which often link her spiritual awareness gained in Eckankar and her many experiences serving in the hospice setting.

The Saturday morning session of the Eckankar seminar is focused on Mastery as Soul. Barbara’s talk on Saturday will be entitled: "There is No Death," based on the speaker's unique lessons learned and spiritual tools she will share.

Barbara is a Program Director for a Hospice Society in Canada—a program of humane and supportive care for the terminally ill and their families. This organization works with a broad range of religious and cultural backgrounds and is non-denominational. Barbara has spoken at provincial conferences, done workshops with medical teams and hospice staff and volunteers, and is a key note speaker for an upcoming hospice conference in British Columbia.

On Saturday afternoon, Barbara will also participate from 3:00pm – 4:00pm at the Crowne Plaza Expo Center in the workshop: Spiritual Wisdom on Prayer, Meditation and Contemplation – A Guide to the Most Secret Part of Yourself. All workshops, including this one, are complimentary and all are invited to attend. Barbara will focus on experiences with powerful spiritual exercises that she uses regularly in her daily life and in the challenging setting of the hospice environment. The wisdom she shares about death and the afterlife will be a highlight for this workshop.

The public is warmly invited and may attend a complimentary session or any of the workshops of the Eckankar seminar – or register for the entire weekend for a suggested donation of only $25 per adult, which includes a special Sunday brunch and a dessert social on Friday evening. No additional donation is requested for children who attend with their parents. Special children’s events and activities will occur throughout the entire weekend.
