Inc. Magazine is the authority for business and being honored by such a prestigious institute with those that came before us such as Microsoft, Intuit and Oracle is a crowning achievement that we are extremely proud of and honored by. I am extremely thankful to our team and clients who have made this possible."

The previous decade of buy and pay later attributed to the world's economic situation which we are now paying dearly for and is the opportunity that Reliance, Inc. has capitalized on.

Mr. Rodriguez continued with,
