

Tsunami Announces New Recording Artist Management Deal

Tsunami Productions signs Top 40 Rap performer, Marklin and announces new 2010-2011 Tour: 'The Makin the Mark Tour' sponsored by Makers Mark.

September 1, 2010 (FPRC) -- Tsunami Productions and Atomic Lawn Entertainment, LLC agree on a management deal with rap recording artist and television personality Marklin. The 'MAKIN' the MARK TOUR' will shake the industry to it's very core.

'Marklin; Once, the child protégé of legendary rock agent Brian Rohan is now all grown-up; the same degree of talent with a twist of reality ~ states Melissa McComas of Tsunami Productions~ 'I knew in my gut that this kid had one more time in him; his lyrics; range of vocals and charisma are timeless, our firm will put our full efforts behind him'

Tsunami has announced a new tour that will start on the east coast in 2010 and carry through 2011, starting in Baltimore, Maryland and Washington DC. Dates and venues will be announced soon.]

Marklin, who's career has been vested in television production and development, as the Host of the successful television series ADHDtv; could not fight the urge to do what he does best, make quality music that fits today's pop 40 hip hop genre.

'With his latest single ' One Day' hitting large streams via the internet and Jango Radio ~ we are at this point gathering data ~ as we build the tour ~ like most in this multi~platform environment ~ and the data is solid; MARKLIN will make is MARK ' states McComas.

Upon hearing the new track, 'One Day' former Mowtown Records legendary producer/songwriter, William 'Mickey' Stevenson (Marvin Gaye, Smokey Robinson, Stevie Wonder), exclaimed 'This song is a hit,' of Marklin and his sound, Stevenson has few doubts of his future success with whatever company he should bring his talents.

When asked why now ? Marklin states ' because I can ~ I will now focus on my god~given talent; I love entertaining people and my music is a little piece of my soul out there for the world to examine'
