

Q Vision Implements New Website Design for Phoenix LASIK and Cataract Surgery Patients

Dr. Tariq Qamar of Q Vision is excited to announce the implementation of a new website design and marketing strategy to attain more Phoenix LASIK and cataract surgery patients

October 19, 2010 (FPRC) -- Dr. Tariq Qamar is proud to announce a new, exciting marketing strategy for Q Vision – his leading Phoenix LASIK and cataract surgery practice – that is designed to provide better access and informational resources for Arizonans suffering from debilitating eye conditions such as cataracts, presbyopia and hyperopia. QVisionAZ.com has added many new features that make it easier for current and prospective patients to discover which vision correction procedure best suits their needs, including an innovative comparison section that provides a step-by-step guide to sophisticated surgical procedures offered at Q Vision.

QVisionAZ.com utilizes a simple interface to make it easier for users to find the detailed eye surgery information that they seek. The website gives patients a comprehensive look inside of Q Vision by displaying the high success rates and superb safety features offered at their state-of-the-art Phoenix cataract surgery and LASIK surgery facility. In addition to these features, users can read testimonials from former Q Vision patients, browse through informative videos and book a complimentary consultation with Dr. Qamar from the website.
