

Local Ska Band Triggers Tears at Film Taping

The classic song 'Tears of a Clown' has been punked out by Tate Music Group artists The Fab Rudies (formerly known as The Fabulous Rudies). The song, from their TMG release 'Help Me,' is to be featured in the Angelic Pictures film 'Beach Bar,' that recently wrapped filming in San Diego, CA. The teen comedy is the highly anticipated sequel to cult flick 'Hole In One,' featuring Steve Talley and Dean Cain.

October 24, 2010 (FPRC) -- Songs from Tate Music Group artist The Fab Rudies are to be featured in the upcoming Angelic Pictures feature film, 'Beach Bar.' The Fab Rudies reinvented the hit song 'Tears of a Clown,' for the movie which recently wrapped filming in San Diego. The remake is from the band's December 14th CD release entitled 'Help Me.'

'Beach Bar' co-stars Ally Maki who also sings with The Fab Rudies in the film. According to band manager and founder Tom Voris, The Fab Rudies are slated to have another song (TBD) placed in the teen comedy.

No stranger to good press and Vans Warped Tour regulars, The Fab Rudies are also highlighted in the current issue of Variance Magazine which features the Grammy award nominated Goo Goo Dolls on the front cover. To read, visit <http://www.variancemagazine.com/issue/goo-goo-dolls>.

'Beach Bar' is the long awaited sequel to the cult classic, 'Hole In One,' starring Steve Talley and Dean Cain.

'Help Me' was produced by The Fab Rudies. The album includes a full 8 tracks and is currently available TateMusicGroup.com. On December 14th, 'Help Me' will be available nationwide at outlets including the iTunes Store, Amazon.com, Rhapsody.com, etc.
