

Wholesale Insurance Publishes New Quarterly Life Insurance Newsletter

Wholesale Insurance, a company dedicated to helping customers find the right term life insurance quotes, publishes a new quarterly newsletter. The newsletter provides customers with up-to-date news about the life insurance industry.

November 4, 2010 (FPRC) -- ROSEVILLE, CA -- Wholesale Insurance, a company that helps customers find the right life insurance plan, announces it has published its newest newsletter. The printed newsletter is mailed out to clients and addresses some of the biggest issues relating to life insurance.

This month's newsletter has a special message from Wholesale Insurance's president R. Jan Pinney. In his message, Pinney explains to customers why cancelling a life insurance policy is a bad idea, even in the current economy. Also included in the newsletter are question and answer sections with Wholesale Insurance advisors and news about the life insurance industry.

"We're always looking out for our clients and want them to know that we've got their best interests in mind. Our newsletter is just another way that we're able to keep them updated with important news about life insurance. The message in our most recent newsletter is one that everyone should read. In this economy, we know how tempting it can be to drop a life insurance policy in an attempt to save a little money every month. However, for families that are struggling on two incomes, this decision could have catastrophic results if the family were suddenly faced with surviving on one income. We're always looking at the big picture and our customers know they can count on us," said Jon Pinney, Marketing Director of Wholesale Insurance.

This quarter's newsletter also focuses on Life Insurance Awareness Month. Every September, the industry's non-profit organization, LIFE, chooses to highlight just why life insurance is so important. This year's celebrity spokesperson is Leslie Bibb, whose father passed away when he was just 39, leaving Bibb's mother alone to raise the couple's four daughters.

The advisors at Wholesale Insurance understand how life insurance can impact a family and works to provide customers with the best term life insurance quotes. Customers can easily go online to www.wholesaleinsurance.net and get a quote in a matter of minutes. Advisors are available to ensure each customer gets the individual attention he or she deserves and each life insurance quote can be fully personalized. Because Wholesale Insurance advisors are licensed with a number of companies, customers can take their pick from a variety of the nation's best life insurance companies.

"Insurance should be personal, not a one-size-fits-all purchase. We know this and tailor each life insurance quote around a family's specific needs and requests. We invite everyone to fill out our simple quote form or give us a call and let us show you how we can help protect your family," said Pinney.
