

Ron Bell Supports the New Mexico Symphony Orchestra

After reading that the NMSO is in dire need of funds, Ron Bell donated $300.00 in an attempt to kick off the campaign asking 3000 people to each give $100.00.

December 8, 2010 (FPRC) -- Ron Bell, attorney has long been a New Mexico Symphony Orchestra (NMSO) supporter in Albuquerque. An avid music enthusiast for music of all genres, Ron is as likely to be seen at a rock concert as he is at a symphony concert. After reading that the NMSO is in dire need of funds, Ron donated $300.00 in an attempt to kick off the campaign asking 3000 people to each give $100.00.

The New Mexico Symphony Guild, a 501c3 non-profit group that raises funds for the NMSO, started the campaign. With over 200 members, the Guild is always creating a fundraising event that will appeal to a wide variety of the community and allow people to have fun while they donate to the NMSO.

Ron said, "Having a quality orchestra like the New Mexico Symphony is an important economic development tool when the city is trying to attract new companies to locate in Albuquerque. Plus it is a lot of fun to enjoy an evening at the symphony."

If you want to support the NMSO please consider donating to them. $100.00 is great, but any amount is welcome. Donating is easy to do, you can donate via the NMSG website online. The web address is: newmexicosymphonyguild.org and click on the donation button. Your donation is tax deductible and you are helping to support career musicians and a quality program.
