December 24, 2010 (FPRC) -- Christmas falls on the same date every year, yet so many of us leave Christmas shopping right up to the last minute and start on Christmas Eve. So to ease the stress of last minute shopping Sound and Vision are having a Christmas Eve sale. Sound and Vision will be kick of the official festive season, with generous discounts, ridiculous reductions and fantastic package deals. Treat the whole family or just yourself to a brand new LCD, LED or plasma HD TV or upgrade your home cinema system.

Customers are invited to join Sound and Vision in celebrating the start of Christmas in one of the television stores and on the Sound and Vision website.

Sound and Vision have been in the AV business for almost 17 years and in that time they have become one of the North West's favourite electrical retailers. Based in Farnworth on the outskirts of Bolton, Sound and Vision have been servicing customers locally and nationally, offering low prices, free delivery and an exceptional service. Customers are encouraged to visit one the television and electrical shops in either Bolton or Leeds this Christmas eve to take advantage of the biggest discounts and offers. The Bolton branch of Sound and Vision is located on Farnworth high street which is just of the M61 at junction 4. Here you will find many televisions and AV cinema equipment out on display including the revolutionary 3D range of televisions and home cinema systems. If the Bolton TV store is out of the way, pay a visit to the Leeds branch in Armley which is just off the A28 ring road. In the Leeds store you will find the same great products on display, including DVD players, Blu-ray recorders, Speakers, AV receivers and more.

In both stores over the Christmas period you will find discounts and low prices on all the top name brands including Sony, Panasonic, LG, Sharp, Philips, Yamaha, KEF Onkyo and more.
