

PromoQuip.com Launches Innovative New Cash Blowing Machine

Totally Tubular! New Tube Money Blowing Booth Easy to Move and Set Up - Goes from Carrying Bag to Blowing Cash in Ten Minutes or Less!

Cedar Springs, MI (FPRC) January 10, 2011 -- PromoQuip.com, a Michigan and manufacturer of promotional equipment today announced its latest product innovation: The Tube Cash-n-ator Money Blowing Booth, designed to be lighter, easier to transport, and easier to assemble than competing products.

PromoQuip.com president and founder David Sanderson said, 'Our newly developed Tube Cash-n-ator puts the excitement of a money blowing booth promotion within the reach of many more businesses and non-profit organizations. At less than a thousand dollars, this is the slickest, easiest to use, best built unit on the market, and easily the best value.'

All PromoQuip.com promotional products are customized with the client's logo imprinted directly on the product or on a banner for display during the promotional event.

'The new Tube Cash-n-ator will allow our clients to move quickly from venue to venue, get their customers physically connected to their business, and close more sales all without biting deeply into their marketing budget. This is a unique way to display their logo while creating enthusiasm for their products and services', Sanderson concluded.

Now in its ninth year of growth and innovation in the promotional equipment industry, PromoQuip.com serves businesses and non-profit organizations both large and small; clients include Coca-Cola, Sprint, Bell Canada, Charter, TD Bank, The Ellen Degeneres Show, Commerce Bank, The New York Yankees, The Florida Marlins, New Balance, McDonalds and many others.
