

Youth Teams in Europe compete in Blackpool Cup International Youth Football Tournament during 23 to 25 April 2011

DirectRooms.com can announce that the 17th Blackpool Cup International Youth Football Tournament is to be held in Blackpool over four days in April. The event will take place from the 23rd to the 25th April 2011 at the Common Edge Playing Fields and Blackpool Mechanics FC

February 14, 2011 (FPRC) -- The four-day event is a celebration of international youth football and will see around one hundred teams gathering at the sports parks of AFC Blackpool. The tournament will see teams from England, Wales, Scotland, Ireland, Northern Ireland and the continent, all competing to win the coveted title.

Guests staying at any of the cheap Blackpool Hotels can expect the tournament to comprise of a number of under-nineteen football games beginning at 09.00 on each of the four days. All games will be finished by 16.00, leaving participants and spectators free to explore the highlights of Blackpool. Full details of playing schedules can be obtained from the organisers at the venue.

Previous tournaments have been a huge success and organisers anticipated that this year's cup will enjoy similar reviews. All games will be played on grass pitches and there are full changing facilities available. Ample parking is also provided and spectators are expected to use these facilities considerably.

First Aid is to be provided throughout the tournament by the St. John's Ambulance Service and a medical representative will be on-site at all times.

Lek Boonlert, marketing head at DirectRooms.com commented: 'With the high number of football teams arriving in Blackpool, many hotels near the grounds will be occupied. Visitors should therefore check the availability of places online to see what is left if heading to the area.'
