

MVP Loops Releases 3 New Keyboard and Synth Based Sample Sound Products

MVP Loops releases 3 new sample sound titles from their Dig Audio brand. These new titles are geared towards the producer looking for synth and piano riffs for music production and beat making and can be used to create many different styles of music.

February 15, 2011 (FPRC) -- MVP Loops expands its hip hop samples collection with 3 new sample sound titles from their in-house Dig Audio brand. These new titles are geared towards the producer looking for synth and piano riffs for music production and beat making. The titles include Urban Synths: Platinum Pad Licks which consists of 90 synth pad samples, Urban Keys: Platinum Piano Licks featuring 152 piano samples, licks and chops and Electric Fire Keyboard Licks featuring 142 electric piano, DX7, wurli and rhodes samples. The products all come pre-kitted and auto load in multiple sampler formats such as Native Instruments Battery, Native Instruments Kontakt, NNXT Reason Sampler, Steinberg Halion Sampler, Logic Pro EXS-24 Sampler, and Motu Mach Five Sampler.

The products can be used to create multiple styles of music from hip hop, to pop, to R&B.

“ MVP Loops is constantly expanding its product catalog to cater to producers and beat makers alike”, said Donald Johnson CEO of MVP Loops.

“These new sample sounds fit right in with the modern music production styles. We’ve done all the work for producers by kitting all the files to auto-load in their favorite samplers. This let’s producers do what they do best, which is create music”, he added.
