

MVP Loops Offers A Massive Selection Of Sample Sounds For Fruity Loops

MVP Loops are on the cutting edge of the sample sound industry and offer sounds and samples that are compatible with Fruity Loops/FL Studio music software.

February 18, 2011 (FPRC) -- Fruity Loops has emerged as one of the go to music making software tools for both pro and beginner music producers alike. It's fairly simple to use and you can started making real good music from the beginning. MVP Loops has ramped up a product development for Fruity Loops and the FL Studio line of products. Embracing the motto that a piece of software is only as good as the sounds in it, MVP Loops has committed itself to offering a massive catalog of sounds and samples for Fruity Loops/FL Studio indefinitely.

Donald Johnson, CEO of MVP Loops had this to say about the popularity of Fruity Loops and MVP Loops' catalog of sounds.

"We at MVP Loops understand that there is a huge community of Fruity Loops/FL Studio software users, and we are committed to delivering hundreds of new products for the Fruity Loops software".

Donald Johnson also commented on MVP Loops' popularity among Fruity Loops users.

"Your music making software program is really only as good as the sounds that you are able to load into it, and MVP Loops offers the most current sounds available".

He added, "The MVP Loops team believes that in order to step up your Hip Hop, RnB or Pop beat making and music production skills you need the right tools to work with. Fruity Loops and MVP Loops is a winning combination for producers."

MVP Loops is powered by the Dig Audio production team. The MVP Loops brand offers hip hop, r&b, electronica, rock, pop, and soul sample packs for Fruity Loops and other software DAW's and samplers for instant download.
