February 24, 2011 (FPRC) -- CHICAGO, IL -- Barry Zlotowicz, Illinois employment lawyer and President of the Chicago Legal Group has developed an informal affiliation with Illinois injury attorney Paul Wolf of Mitchell, Hoffman & Wolf. Mr. Wolf is a Chicago personal injury lawyer who has practiced personal injury for twenty-five years. Mr. Wolf's practice is based in downtown Chicago but he is available for consultation throughout Illinois.

Mr. Wolf has handled hundreds of Chicago personal injury cases including, but not limited to: auto and other transportation accidents, Chicago medical malpractice cases, Illinois wrongful death lawsuits, slip and fall accidents and workplace accidents. Mr. Wolf's resume of handling multi-million dollar lawsuits speaks for itself. Some of his successful cases include:

- $1,500,000 for the victim of Chicago medical malpractice – his client's physician negligently placed a catheter line into the subclavian artery instead of the vein.
- $7,850,000 settlement negotiated by Mr. Wolf on behalf of the victim of a Chicago bus crash resulting in brain injuries, pelvic fractures, paralysis, and collapsed lungs.
- $3,000,000 settlement for Mr. Wolf's client who was injured in a Chicago construction accident. The litigation was comprehensive requiring 2 years of discovery, depositions, inspections and expert testimony.

"My office has handled hundreds of Chicago personal injury cases including auto accidents, bus accidents, work injuries, medical malpractice cases and Illinois wrongful death lawsuits. I work up every case as if it's going to trial. Our representation is aggressive, thorough and compassionate. Please contact Barry Zlotowicz of the Chicago Legal Group to arrange a free consultation with me to discuss you or your loved one's accident and/or injuries. I guarantee you will be more than satisfied with our representation." Paul Wolf
