

Actuarial Salary Surveys Published by ClaudePenland.com, 2011 United States Compensation

At ClaudePenland.com/salary, ten actuarial salary surveys have been released that cover various types of actuarial employment and differing years of experience. This is the most comprehensive actuarial compensation undertaking in the US.

May 5, 2011 (FPRC) -- Claude Penland, actuary and webmaster, announces the inaugural release of his 2011 United States actuarial salary surveys.

Found at ClaudePenland.com/salary, these base salary plus bonus compensation surveys are split by Life, Property and Casualty, Pensions and Health actuarial work.

Comprising 10 distinct salary tables listing years of employment and number of actuarial exams, they are further distributed by consulting versus insurance / reinsurance / other employment. These actuary salary surveys were derived using public compensation data.

A downloadable, printable and shareable pdf file of all salary tables is also available directly from the ClaudePenland.com/salary page.
