

New Golf Skorts By Wear To Win Color The Course

Wear To Win announces the release of two new golf skort fashions.

May 9, 2011 (FPRC) -- Wear to Win, the newest brand of fashionable golf apparel for women, has announced the launch of two new Jessica Skort styles, the Jessica Blue Sparkler and Jessica Pink Pinwheel, as an addition to their fashion portfolio. These new garments are creations inspired by the summer season and include vibrant color palates, flattering A-line design, and Wear to Win's original no-creep under short.

The 'Blue Sparkler' and the 'Pink Pinwheel' are featured with beautiful sky blue, cotton white, and bubblegum pink colors. Each are made of cotton/Lycra and cotton pique fabrics. The skorts are part of the 'Jessica' collection and are now available to pro shops throughout the United States as well as at www.weartowin.com.

'The Jessica Blue Sparkler and Jessica Pink Pinwheel are made out of some of my favorite fabrics! The prints are like a breath of fresh air, and are perfect for the summer season,' said Laura Ormson, Wear to Win vice-president.

All skorts come in sizes 0 to 16 and offer a low-rise fit to flatter every figure. Each skort is designed with tournament approved hemlines and a no-creep, moisture- wicking under short. The Jessica skorts feature two back welt pockets and two deep front pockets- perfect for both left-handed and right-handed golfers! All garments are made in the beautiful USA.

About WearToWin.com:

Designing Golf Apparel and Building Futures WearToWin.com aims to fill an absent niche: flattering, fun and durable golf wear for lady golfers of all ages. After experiencing first-hand the limited offerings of stylish and comfortable golf apparel, mother and daughter team, Cynthia and Laura Ormson, decided to do something about it. As a college student and tournament golfer, Laura and her mother established WearToWin.com to help every female golfer feel more confident on and off the course. Beyond that, we aim to empower girls by encouraging self-confidence and a positive self-image, so they can become great leaders and extraordinary women.
