

Simon's Hot dogs awarded 'Certificate of Excellence' by TripAdvisor

Simon's Hot Dogs is honored to announce that TripAdvisor the world's largest travel site that offers evaluation of hotels, resorts, restaurants airlines, attractions, and much more based on the reviews and opinions of millions of people awarded them a Certificate of Excellence.

June 1, 2011 (FPRC) -- Sedona, AZ. After over a year of serving a superb experience of hot dog delight for local folks and travelers, Simon's Hot dogs was awarded with 'Certificate of Excellence' by TripAdvisor for being top number two among the 147 escapades in Sedona and for maintaining an exceptional rating from travelers' candid critique.

According to some of the reviewers found at TripAdvisor site, Simon's Hot dogs is excellent in serving 'affordable hot dogs, paired with some excellent brews;' for instance, the Colombian and Brat served together with the Cowboy and Hola Amigo. Some Reviewers also agree they serve the 'Best hot dogs and great service'

The 'certificate of Excellence' is given by TripAdvisor to top-rated restaurants and attractions based on traveler's reviews and the volume of reviews travelers submit to the site.

Christine Petersen, the president of TripAdvisor said that the program will be an on-going basis with the goal to expand the recognition from restaurants to accommodations, specifically from Boston to Barcelona, which bestowed travelers from TripAdvisor a great customer experience.

On the other hand, TripAdvisor is the world's largest travel site offering the most trusted travel advices, travel choices and package, as well as planning features from real travelers.

Today, Simon's restaurant is proudly serving its best having the honoree's digital recognition badge on the upper right corner of their business site dated May 2011. As of the moment, the restaurant also enjoys a 92 per cent recommendation from TripAdvisor with its excellent rating in food, service, value, and atmosphere.
