

Uniform Company Helps with Sweet Event

Sassy Scrubs, a Penn Yan, NY based e-tailer and manufacturer of custom scrubs and uniforms, recently had the pleasure of working with Philadelphia's Care Pavilion for a Sweet event.

June 29, 2011 (FPRC) -- Penn Yan, NY - The uniform company Sassy Scrubs had the honor of working with Philadelphia's Care Pavilion to provide unique Lips themed fabric for the Kissing Booth at their June Carnival.

Sassy Scrubs, who creates and markets their own line of medical scrubs uniforms, has discovered that many of their customers find them through organic Google searches. Most 'searchers' are medical professionals; however, one customer, who is in the medical profession, needed Sassy Scrubs for something other than scrubs! The customer, Dana Beatty, found Sassy Scrubs while on the hunt for 'Lips Fabric'. That's right; fabric printed with lips on it. Let's find out why...

Dana Beatty is an Assistant Administrator at Care Pavilion. Dana was recently called upon to help build a Kissing Booth for their recreation department's Carnival themed event, held on Thursday, May 26th in Philadelphia, PA. Rather than paint lips on his booth, Dana sought out fabric with lips on it to add a bit of extra flair to the event. He found Sassy Scrubs on Google, and contacted them to buy their Sassy Fabric by the Yard.

During the event, residents of Care Pavilion visited several booths. There was a Ticket Booth, a 'Candy' booth (where residents received personal care products) and a Kissing Booth (where residents received Hershey Kiss candies). Dana noted that the event was a great success, despite the heat of the day. And of course, the Kissing Booth was a big hit.

The Care Pavilion, a not for profit group that provides housing and care in Philadelphia for seniors with limited financial means, is a proud member of the NewCourtland Network. Located on the corner of 62rd and Walnut Streets, Care Pavilion offers nearly 400 skilled and intermediate beds. Built on a proud tradition of offering care and services to Philadelphia's seniors, Care Pavilion is at the heart of a traditional Philadelphia neighborhood that features row homes, churches, schools, playgrounds, and shops.
