

Dragon Gate Wrestling Comes to Nottingham from 21 to 22 October 2011

Sports fans will have a lot to celebrate on 21st and 22nd October when the Dragon Gate Pro-Wrestling event takes place in Nottingham.

September 13, 2011 (FPRC) -- Dragon Gate wrestling started in Japan and is now popular all over the world. Matches taking place will include PAC v Dragon Kid and Shingo v Yokosuka.

The venue is the well-known Albert Hall, which hosts a variety of different events each year from concerts to trade shows. The event begins at 7.30pm and ticket costs vary depending upon the seat location. The venue is centrally located and easy to reach both by public transport and by car. The venue has excellent car parking facilities.

Lek Boonlert, Head of Marketing for DirectRooms.com, has some advice for those travelling to this event. 'Remembering to book hotel accommodation in advance is the best way to avoid disappointment. Being a very popular event in an already busy city can mean that hotels and other accommodation become booked up very quickly. Reserving rooms prior to arrival can save time and worry later'.

Public transport links in Nottingham are excellent so if anyone does happen to find themselves staying a little further away from the venue, there should be no problem making their way there and arriving on time. Nottingham City Centre hotels are ideally located for this venue and there are a wide range of different venues available, so there is sure to be something to suit all budgets and tastes.
