Dublin, OH (FPRC) September 16, 2011 -- Barina Craft, a manufacturer of bar furniture for the home, announces the opening of its new shop on CafePress.com. The store will showcase a selection of exclusive products sure to please every home bar enthusiast and owner. Find beer steins, shot glasses, 'Irish' coffee mugs, insulated can holders, sport style water bottles & other beverage accessories along with an array of select gifts and fun gear.

Visitors to the Home Bar Ware and Gifts store can purchase a variety of specialized designs printed from an assortment of unique Barina Craft artwork. CafePress, the leading source for high quality custom printed products, now allows Barina Craft shoppers to reflect their interests, passions and affiliations.

The store's sign has a white on blue design with antique fonts to accent the nautical inspiration prevalent in the company's furniture. New items and graphics geared towards this theme, some comic relief to get the party started and other designs will be featured.

Whether entertaining indoors or outside .. drinkware, bar gear, supplies and related gifts for a whole range of occasions will be available for purchase in your personal choice of styles, sizes and colors. For more information on individual item availability and pricing please visit the gift shop at <http://www.cafepress.com/barinacraft>.

Founded in 2007, Barina Craft's home bar furniture is available through their official site at <http://www.barinacraft.com> and may be shipped throughout the contiguous United States. All furniture items are handcrafted by artisans in the United States. Special requests are always welcome.
