

Demon's Cycle Reports on Popular Trend in Upgrading Handlebars

To meet the growing demand for handlebar upgrades, Demon's Cycle now stocks over twenty-five thousand handlebars. As the trend to upgrade motorcycle handlebars increases, Demon's will strive to keep prices low and ward off the competition.

October 27, 2011 (FPRC) -- Demon's Cycle Inc., a custom motorcycle builder and custom motorcycle parts supplier, is reporting a growing trend in the number of its customers seeking to customize their bikes by upgrading the handlebars. As a leader in high quality custom Harley parts, Demon's Cycle offers a wide range of custom handlebars to suit almost every need and style.

Demon's Cycle's collection of handlebars includes dozens of different variations like drag, t-bars, ape hangers and fat bars. All of these parts come in chrome and black finish. Demon's handlebar stock covers many height rises from just four inches all the way up to eighteen inches. Demon's can also supply custom handlebars for bikers with the newest Harley-Davidson models that include "fly-by-wire" throttles.

As an innovator of custom bike designs, Demon's Cycle have their own handlebar range with integrated L.E.D turn signals. These custom 1-1/4 inch handlebars for Harley-Davidson's are available in various rises and in fully wired versions with hand controls installed.

"We are seeing an increasing trend in the number of bikers who want to customize the handlebars of their bikes," said Thomas Steinbacher, owner of Demon's Cycle. "To save our customers money and time we offer optional hand controls with internal wiring on virtually all of our handlebars."

With a stock of over twenty five thousand handlebars, Demon's Cycle is determined to have the best selection available for its customers and to keep prices far below that of the competition.
