

Wear To Win Announces 2012 PGA Show Discount

Golf Apparel Company, Wear To Win, Releases Discount For PGA Merchandise Show

November 21, 2011 (FPRC) -- MISHAWAKA, INDIANA - Wear to Win, LLC has announced that they will offer buyers a 10% discount for product orders placed at the PGA Merchandise Show 2012. The PGA Show will take place January 25-28, 2012 at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, Florida. The PGA Merchandise Show is a comprehensive multi-purpose business platform with over 1,000 vendors representing every business sector of golf, from market leaders to start-up companies.

'We are most pleased to offer this show discount to reward our loyal and new customers. Our product discount allows our clients flexibility and provides additional purchasing incentive to new buyers as they consider the Wear to Win brand,' said company President, Cindy Ormson.

Wear to Win will showcase their Spring/Summer Collection for 2012, which includes a new palate of brightly colored shirts and skorts, with a focus on richly textured fabrics. Wear to Win has labeled their newest fashion line as 'The Tribal Collection'.

The complete Wear to Win display can be found in the Apparel Section and listed as booth #4984 at the 2012 PGA Show held in Orlando Florida.

Wear to Win produces a discernibly high-quality fashion product for the golf apparel market. About Wear to Win:

Designing golf apparel and building futures Wear To Win aims to fill an absent niche: flattering, fun and durable golf wear for lady golfers of all ages. After experiencing first-hand the limited offerings of stylish and comfortable golf apparel, mother and daughter team, Cynthia and Laura Ormson, decided to do something about it. As a college student and tournament golfer, Laura and her mother established Wear To Win to help every female golfer feel more confident on and off the course. Wear to Win strives to empower girls by encouraging self-confidence and a positive self-image needed for young women to become great leaders and truly extraordinary women.
