December 8, 2011 (FPRC) -- CHICAGO, IL -- Michael C. Craven, named as one of the best divorce lawyers in Chicago by the Leading Lawyers Network, recently presented at Divorce University, a one day seminar hosted by The Lilac Tree and created to help empower women through all stages of divorce.

The Lilac Tree is a not-for-profit organization that was created in order to help educate women on the legal, emotional and financial outcomes from divorce. At the organization's Divorce University, Craven presented a 'Beyond the Basics' seminar, which focused on advanced finances during the divorce process. Topics included evaluating short and long-term settlements and maintenance options, insurance, child support expenses, tax implications and more. Attendees were given time during the session to ask questions regarding their situations.

"Divorce, even the most amicable one, isn't easy on anyone. I'm honored that I was asked to present at Divorce University. Education about all aspects of a divorce is vital, but having a clear understanding of how financial issues could affect you is even more important. If you're facing a divorce, don't face it alone. Contact someone who can help you survive divorce," said Craven, one of the divorce lawyers in Chicago with Beermann Pritikin Mirabelli Swerdlove, LLP.
