

Attend 19th Annual ANFAS Food Product Expo in February 2012

The 19th annual ANFAS Food Product Exhibition is scheduled to take place between 15th and 18th February 2012 in the Antalya Expo Centre in Antalya, Turkey.

December 12, 2011 (FPRC) -- This annual event is aimed at suppliers of food and beverage products designed especially for the hospitality industry. Exhibitors come from a wide range of countries and include meat and meat product producers, milk and milk product producers, game producers, seafood importers and suppliers, fresh and dried fruit and vegetable growers and suppliers and cereal growers and distributors.

There are a number of manufacturers who also have stands displaying products including jams and spread, confectionery, chocolate, pastry goods and biscuits, oils, butters and margarines.

As well as food suppliers, the exhibitors also include production technology, packaging and distribution chain technology suppliers, dedicated to improving supply chain and logistics in the food and beverage industry.

Attracting visitors from across Turkey and 58 countries in Europe, the Middle East and Asia, this is one of the premier food and beverage shows in the region. The exhibition organisers hope to build on the success of ANFAS Food Product 2011 by attracting 400 exhibitors showing their wares in a 40,000m2 exhibition space. Over 45,000 professional visitors are expected over the four days of the show.

Antalya Exhibition Centre's exhibition space is laid out over two floors connected by escalators. There are six main halls and a number of boardrooms where seminars, workshops and private meetings are held.

Hotels in Kemer City Centre are just along the pretty coast from Antalya and are popular places to stay for visitors who prefer to be based in a quieter location.
