

Las Vegas Concierges Adds New Tours And Exciting Las Vegas Adventures For Travelers

Offering The Opportunity To Escape The Neon Jungle, Las Vegas Visitors Can Experience Amazing And Exciting Thrills And Sights All Over The Valley

December 22, 2011 (FPRC) -- Certainly the first thing people think of when they come to Vegas is The Strip. But after the glitter wears off and the slot machine budget is tapped, visitors soon start looking for another way to enjoy Las Vegas. A way that is exciting and fun, but doesn't involve betting on something for the thrill.

Now they're in luck, as Las Vegas Concierges has made it easier than ever to book almost any adventure offered anywhere in Las Vegas.

Every traveler knows that the concierge is the goto solution for shows and dinner reservations in Las Vegas. Now Las Vegas Concierges has taken their services even farther by including access to helicopter and airplane tours as well as indoor and outdoor sky diving. Even more than that, they have scouted out some exciting yet often overlooked adventures like zip lining and horseback riding too.

Many of the adventures are more suitable for adults, like racing Ferraris and Lambos around the track at the Las Vegas Speedway or the Dogfighting experience out at the Henderson Airport. But many of them are also great for the whole family as well. There is certainly something on the list that is suitable for everyone, no matter what age.

Las Vegas Concierges has been serving the traveling public since 2004. Serving thousands of customers for the companies like Las Vegas Retreats and Sin City Vacation Rentals, they have amassed tremendous experience servicing Las Vegas travelers. Las Vegas Concierges offers an extensive list of services that have been created for business and leisure travelers alike. They are experts in group travel and group lodging.

Las Vegas Concierges is located on the Las Vegas Strip next to the Factory Outlet Mall. From this convenient location, they offer efficient service to the entire Las Vegas Valley. By showcasing nearly all of the top ranked tours and adventures in Las Vegas, they will surely be an invaluable service for anyone wanting to have a great time in Las Vegas.
