

More Choice For Competition Hunters

Popular freebies site freebielist.com has extended its competitions offering to include baby competitions, car, cash and health and beauty prize draws.

December 27, 2011 (FPRC) -- Free product review site freebielist.com has launched its extended Free Competitions section, featuring prize draws for cars, baby goods, computers, food and drink, shopping sprees and more.

The pages are intended to provide useful, concise reviews of free to enter competitions with no catches. Although the vast majority of listings require participants to be over the age of 18, with some exceptions.

While many competitions are still available offline in magazines and newspapers, or on the television, the online world provides the easiest method to enter prize draws en-mass, meaning the chances of winning are greatly increased. In addition, since competition providers usually only require the completion of a single entry form, they are far easier to enter as well.

At the time of writing, visitors can win a Volkswagen Golf, holiday to Las Vegas, Land Rover Driving Experience, beauty goody bags, Xbox 360 games console, and more. These kinds of prizes are sure to excite cash-strapped Web surfers as they look for new ways to generate money and high-value items.

Andrew Varley, founder of freebielist.com, said:

“Competitions are very popular online since visitors can enter a large number within a short space of time. This is especially the case if entrants use automatic form-filling software like Roboform or the default tool in Google Chrome, which takes the leg-work out of tedious form filling.

“Our extended competitions category is intended to provide our loyal users with even more competitions to have a go at.”

Tips for entering competitions:

- 1) Try to enter as many competitions as you can. Schedule a daily time-slot when you dedicate your time to entering.
- 2) Don't overlook the smaller prizes as they are often easier to win.
- 3) Make a note of the closing date and be sure to enter beforehand.
- 4) Become familiar with the competition terms and conditions of entry.
- 5) If you don't win, don't get disheartened. Keep trying until you succeed.

freebielist.com also contains a variety of other freebies, such as free samples and vouchers, along with digital freebies, like games, fonts, software, etc.
