

Expanded Inventory for 2012

Announcing additions to the custom printed invitations inventory for existing lines and brand new merchandise lines

December 28, 2011 (FPRC) -- Merrick, New York, United States. Creations by Leslie, industry leader in custom printed invitations will be expanding many lines of inventory for the 2012 year. Additions will include expanded Communion invitations, bridal shower invitations, brand new to Doc Milo a tableware and decorations line, plus a brand new designer to the site, Julia Dazar.

Creations by Leslie has a reputation for quality party invitations and all the necessary accessories to go along with a party. With the holidays winding down it is time to begin planning some events to help pass the rest of the winter. In the first few months of the year there are many occasions people throw parties for which require invitations, Super bowl, Valentine's Day, and Mardi Gras. Now is a great time to order custom invitations for these happy times and give friends something to look forward to.

After winter comes spring, that means many more happy occasions to celebrate and start to think of planning for. First communion is in the spring and another season right around the corner is wedding season. Along with weddings are showers for the bride. Creations by Leslie has an extensive selection of shower invitations for wedding showers. Whatever the occasion Creations by Leslie carries high quality items for party planning to help make it memorable.

Creations by Leslie is run by the husband and wife team of Leslie and Michael Ciriaco in Merrick, New York. Leslie and Michael want the customer to be completely satisfied when placing an order, there are no set up fees and no additional charges for the customized printing, quality of product is guaranteed and only premium card stock as well as high quality laser and digital printing are used. A proof of the order is emailed to the customer by the end of the next business day to ensure it is correct. Whatever the occasion Creations by Leslie carries customizable invitations and accessories to make it special.
