Hackensack, NJ – January 22, 2009 – Shelko Consulting LLC is proud to announce that they will be offering the newest software in field service management. WorkTrack by Corrigo will change the way you work by optimizing your workforce and streamlining your business processes. The results of implementing this new software will be multifold.

WorkTrack has a variety of functions and can be utilized by all kinds of companies. The software is ideal for service based businesses, such as: electrical, HVAC, home and business alarm systems, cleaning services, plumbing, delivery services and more.

This dynamic software which works with QuickBooks Enterprise Solutions by Intuit and alone allows users to process work orders, collect on-the-spot payments from customers, submit timecards and track job durations all from the use of a PDA or other handheld device. Supervisors can even locate workers through GPS technology.

'The benefits of using this software will become apparent quickly after a company begins to use it. It enables you to do a lot more, in less time,' said Aric Shelko, president of Shelko Consulting LLC. 'It's all about creating efficiency, and this software does exactly that.'
