

Raleigh Florist Receives Standing Ovation at the MetroBravo Awards 2009

The English Garden, the renowned florist in Raleigh NC, has won another award, this time from Metro Magazine for the best florist.

September 10, 2009 (FPRC) -- The English Garden Florist is pleased to announce that they have received the 2009 Standing Ovation Award in the category of Home Life - Florist by Metro Magazine. The English Garden Florist is no stranger to winning awards, earlier this year it was voted the Best Place to Buy Flowers in the Triangle by readers of Midtown Magazine.

The annual MetroBravo reader poll, asks readers to vote on dozens of categories of goods and services and nominate their Triangle favorites. The results were published in two parts with the second part including Shopping and Retail; Automotive; Health and Fitness; Education; Tech Life and Home Life the category in which the Raleigh Florist won its award.

Unlike other awards which are decided by a panel or the editors, the MetroBravo Awards are nomination based meaning businesses are vying for tops honors against all potential competitors in their field. The awards, now in their tenth year, are handed out according to real customer experiences based on service, popularity, overall satisfaction and excellence in a respective field.

"We were ecstatic to learn that our customers and the readers of Metro selected us as the best florist in Raleigh," Cydney Davis-English, owner of The English Garden. "Winning Metro's Standing Ovation Award is such a milestone for our company, our employees and our family."

The prestige of the MetroBravo Awards is evidenced by the wide circulation of Metro Magazine which reaches over 40,000 readers in a 22-county region that encompasses Raleigh, the Research Triangle and Eastern North Carolina. In the competitive and growing business environment of the Triangle, being voted the best florist is a real achievement.
