March 15, 2011 (FPRC) -- George W. Bush Presidential Center recognizes Mr. Patrick Donnell as a charter member with all of the rights and responsibilities pertaining hereto. Given at Dallas, Texas, this thirteenth day of January, Two Thousand Eleven

“Mr. Donnell, you have played a special role in the work of the President and Mrs. Bush.

Your steadfast support through this often-tumultuous period was of enormous help to President and Mrs. Bush. They greatly appreciate your commitment and friendship. And now, they hope you will help make certain the important events of his presidency...” – The Honorable Mark Langdale, President, George W. Bush Foundation.

“Dear Mr. Donnell

Throughout our time in the White House, Laura and I were sustained by support from friends like you. With your help, we advanced hopeful and effective policies rooted in the ideals of freedom, opportunity, responsibility and compassion.

Since returning home to Texas, Laura and I have been hard at work developing the George W. Bush Presidential Center. In addition to housing my Presidential Library and Museum, the Bush Center will include a policy research institute – a first for a presidential library.

The Bush Institute will be home to scholars and policy experts who will work with Laura and me to advance powerful ideas and sound principles through research, scholarship, and results-oriented programs.

When President Franklin D. Roosevelt dedicated the first presidential library, he said it would be grounded in the capacity of the American people ‘to learn from the past, that they can gain in judgment in creating their own future.’ I have the same goal for our new Presidential Center in Dallas, Texas.

Laura and I appreciate your friendship, encouragement, and prayers over the years, and we are honored to invite you to join us as a Charter Member of the Bush Center. We look forward to working with you as we dedicate this new chapter in our lives to advancing the noble ideals we share.

Sincerely,

George W. Bush”
