April 12, 2011 (FPRC) -- Kaldeera, a leading provider of SharePoint Tools and web parts, announced today that it has opened a new US-based office in Atlanta, Georgia. The new office is aligned with Kaldeera's strategy to expand business into the North American market.

'We are excited that the new U.S. office will bring us closer to our North American partners and enable us to offer our SharePoint Tools in this region. We look forward to extending our product and service offering to new and existing partners in the North American market and developing new relationships in this region as we continue to build out our worldwide footprint.' said Joan Trilla, Managing Director. The office will be located at the Buckhead area.

Pau Codina, CTO of Kaldeera, said: 'As more businesses recognize the cost savings and risk mitigation capabilities of the Kaldeera Tools for SharePoint, the ongoing expansion of our customer base in North America and especially in the US means this is the right time for Kaldeera to establish new premises. With the launch of Kaldeera Workflow and Kaldeera Advanced Forms in Q4 2010 we expect our client base to continue to expand further and we must be prepared to meet our customers' expectations.'
