

RI Wedding Photographer Launches New Website

Rhode Island wedding photographer Andre Blais is pleased to announce the launch of the brand's new RI photography website: <http://www.rhodeislandweddingphotographer.com>.

August 27, 2012 (FPRC) -- The new Rhode Island wedding photography website offers a contemporary look and streamlined user experience. It features enhanced resources and functionality designed for the users in the New England wedding community who are searching for wedding photographers in Rhode Island.

The website is a true resource for those planning their New England wedding photography needs. New features include portfolios for wedding favorites, select weddings, engagement portraits.

The enhanced 'Faq' section offers visitors the ability to see many of the common questions one is faced with when choosing a wedding photographer in RI.

An expanded 'Client Raves' section offers a look into the experiences of previous clients. Besides the Rhode Island area, this also features reviews by clients who have had experiences with wedding photography in Massachusetts and wedding photography in Connecticut.

The addition of the new portfolio, entitled 'Select Weddings', highlights some of Andre Blais Photography's favorite wedding locations in Rhode Island. This includes Newport, RI wedding venues as well as Providence RI wedding photography.
