

Grammy Winner Composer Yalil Guerra releases new Chamber Music Album.

RYCY Productions proudly announces the release of Grammy Award Winner, composer Yalil Guerra's new album titled: "30th Career Anniversary Album. Chamber Music Vol. III".

May 10, 2013 (FPRC) -- After winning for Best Classical Contemporary Composition at the XIII Latin Grammy awards in Las Vegas, 2012, Guerra is committed to continue producing high quality art music. After two previous successful productions; "Old Havana. Chamber Music Vol. I and II, he started this new project, to celebrate 30 years of career in music.

"Selecting the repertoire for this recording was quite a challenge. I wanted to include in this record a combination of my early work and the most recent ones, in order to give a sense of evolution to my music composition". I had the privilege to work with some of the most prestigious artists and musicians and from the Los Angeles area and Havana city, and I am very honored and proud with their collaboration in the production of this album", said Guerra, from his recording studio in Burbank. www.rycy.com.

This Chamber Music Vol. III record compiles both, instrumental and vocal music, premiering the recording of "Suite Cubana" ("Cuban Suite"), piano quintet; "A Mil Guerras Solo" ("To A Thousand Wars Alone"), string quartet; two choral pieces "Como Una Flor" ("Like A Flower") and "Donde Está Mi Negro Bembón"; the songs "Amor" ("Love") and "Guajira Natural" ("The Natural Peasant"); "Amazona Express" for guitar and two new piano pieces "Tres Piezas Cubanas" ("Three Cuban Pieces") and "Homenaje a Aurelio de la Vega" ("Tribute to Aurelio de la Vega").
