

Matt Heath Photography Announces Brand New Reward Scheme for Referrals

The Essex-based photographer is proud to announce that he will now be rewarding those that have recommended him for their generous referrals.

September 10, 2013 (FPRC) -- Matt Heath is so delighted with the increasing number of referrals his company is generating from past clients that he has developed a scheme to reward newlyweds for their good word. From now on, his company Matt Heath Photography will be offering a canvas of choice to clients who have referred their engaged friends to Matt after receiving their stunning portfolio of wedding photos.

Clients can choose to receive one printed image of their choice from their own wedding day as a symbol of Matt's gratitude.

Here, Matt Heath explains why he decided to introduce his new loyalty scheme.

"The new rewards for recommendations scheme is a logical idea that I wish I had thought of a while ago! I have been a professional photographer for many years and business has always been steady, but I feel that rewarding my wonderful customers for their recommendations and their loyalty is an important step at this stage in my career, as I have been lucky enough to have built strong relationships with hundreds of amazing couples.

"I advertise my professional photography services on a variety of mediums but word-of-mouth referrals from customers are invaluable, as they prove to me that I'm still doing a great job," he continues.
